WITTENBERG COLLEGE *

CLARENCE C. STOUGHTON, PRESIDENT

A year book records history--the summary of deeds done during the year. That's good and necessary.

But it cannot record the spirit of our campus, all that elusive something that makes Wittenberg different from every other college and gives it a flavor all its own. Every good college should have such a distinctiveness.

I would record, therefore, with overflowing gratitude, a bit of the spirit of Wittenberg. The friendly greetings of students and faculty as they meet on campus. Our capacity for working together on such efforts as the Springfield Campaign. Our wholesome sense of proportion in athletics. Our unfailing sense of God's presence in our corporate and individual life. Our loyalties and enthusiasms and willingness to tackle hard tasks.

For all this I once again say my thanks to our family. What a wonderful family it is! It is good to be a part of it.

Clarence C. Stoughton
President, Wittenberg

this is a picture book — an aid to remembering 1957 at Wittenberg. it will last and be of value as long as your memories last.

we have photographed a year, and, at the end of it, debts of gratitude are piled shoulder high: thank you dean spragg for your patience and advice; edie keller, tom rapkin, and mr. horst rinne for the division pages; jon welford for the cover design; bill walfarth, frank rinne, margie payne, mr. louis fitch and the publicity department for the photography; — liz wiegand and staff for secretarial work; joe cox and staff for copy; bob anderson for sports writing; marie schulz and staff for the advertising.

each spring the wittenberg women's league naminates three candidates for alma mater queen an the basis of personality, campus activities, and scholarship • with torch bearers jean miller and jan hart, marilyn mitchell was elected to reign aver the 1951 alma mater pageant • marilyn, a junior af louisville, kentucky, is a fine arts major and the president af alpha delta pi sorarity.

alma mater pageant

with "reminiscence" os its theme, the 1951 olmo moter pogeont presented dances characteristic of the first five decades of the twentieth century • the program, under the co-choirmonship of edith kellar and caral unger, was presented on the afternoon of june 2 • it began with the crawning of the new alma mater queen by last year's queen, helen snyder • tnen wamen enrolled in the variaus service caurses af the physical education department presented the colorful costumed dances • the callege orchestra accampanied the performance.

with a $200 grant from the hazen foundation and another $200 from the college, wittenberg was one of forty colleges to participate in the three-fold program to further student-faculty relations:

1—to provide funds for informal entertainment and meetings of freshman and sophomores in faculty homes;

2—to provide funds for the cost of refreshments at a series of eight monthly meetings of student-faculty discussion groups to which juniors and seniors are invited;

3—to pay a portion of the expense of baby sitting at faculty homes so to permit greater participation by younger faculty members in student-sponsored events.

the hazen forums, discussion groups for juniors, seniors, and faculty, have proven singularly successful as an informal, informative exchange of thought • all phases of campus life have been discussed, and the meetings were distinguished by their candidness, frankness, and sincerity of expression.

directing the hazen forums are: ed abbott, marilyn beattie, gabby lado, jack rockel, bob mills, dean sallee, dean stouffer, rev. krueger, and dr. f. j. schrag.

under the direction of fred bremer, the thirty-five voice phi kappa psi chorus won the competition in the annual inter-fraternity sing • their selections were "en monte oliveti," by otto sinsenberger, and "joys of being together," by tully waggoner and ken gilbert.

gamma phi beta, under the direction of nancy elson, won the inter-sorority sing • their selections were " 'neath the crescent moon " a sorority song, and "calm is the night" by carol bohn.

under the capable direction af professar jahn thamas williams, the wittenberg a capella choir is the student's harmanious interpretatar of finer music • since 1932 it has been a major part af the choir's calendar to tour ohio and the six neighbaring states of indiana, illinois, kentucky, new yark, pennsylvanio, and michigan • but this year the choir remained at home to porticipate in the wittenberg-springfield drive • their mast outstanding perfarmance was the december presentatian af bach's "magnificat," in collaboratian with the springfield symphany orchestra • with the singing of the "recquiem" in may ot the field house, the choir braught to a clase anather successful year in secular music.

rebuilding and revitalizing has been the keynate far faatball at wittenberg college in recent years, and the 1951 seasan praved na exceptian ta this rule • althaugh the fighting lutherans wan but faur af the ten games an the schedule, they displayed a heartening and encauraging spirit and will ta win.

befare crawded stadiums bath at hame and away team play cambined with individual excellence cast rather bright lights taward future seasans.

saphamore was the key ward during the seasan • head caach tam ness directed a saphamare-studded squad during his secand year at the reigns af lutheran faatball • graduatian had taken the entire 1950 backfield as well as same key linemen, and that lack af experience caupled with unfartunate injuries hampered scaring ability taward the end af the season.

ohia narthern entertained the lutherans in the apener at ada • a mixture af fine running and passing braught wittenberg its first successful apening game in five years • while the backfield was crassing the palar bear gaal far 32 paints the defensive plataan stapped all narthern scaring attempts • playing hasts ta aberlin a week later the lutherans shawed a dad's day crawd same fine affensive play, but a spatty pass defensive caused their dawnfall, 13-6.

the third and perhaps mast exciting game saw wittenberg squeeze past the juniar varsity af ahia state university by ane paint, 14-13 • hanars during this cantest went ta the stalwart defense, which time and again stalled patential scaring drives by the juniar buckeyes.

powerful heidelberg averwhelmed the lutherans ot tiffin the fallowing saturdoy • never recovering from twa costly fumbles in the first quarter, they suffered o 34-0 setback.

homecaming wos a tremendous success for wittenberg os the gridders presented the alumni with a convincing 26-0 victory over marietta's pioneers.

the second consecutive and fourth seoson win was ployed under the local lights • georgetawn was the 20-12 victim in a game marked by roin, mud, and some long runs by the lutheran backs • this gome proved ta be the peak in wittenberg's season, far the lutherons went dawn from there to faur straight defeats amid a flurry af injuries.

denisan's big red welcamed the lutherans with open orms a week loter • avenging the previous yeor's defeat, they delighted o gronville crawd with a 38-7 win while the lutherans never got storted.

traveling to beliat, wiscansin, the lutherans battled o highly-rated blue devil squad on even terms anly ta lase in the finol minutes by ane touchdown, 26-20.

migratian day sow loyal wittenberg fans brove cald and snaw to wotch an autscared but not outfought teom ga dawn to o 34-0 defeat ot the honds of o surging ohia wesleyon powerhouse.

thonksgiving day braught akran university to the wittenberg stadium for the first morning game in many years • with twelve seniars playing their finol gome the lutherans again found the last quarter drive lacking, ond were honded their sixth lass, 13-7.

combining experience, teamwork, and individual scoring records, the lutheran cage squad produced a successful and highly dramatic brand of basketball for wittenberg fans during the 1951-52 season.

coach howard maurer built his starting five around veteran seniors perk robins, eddie dunn, loyal bishop, and phil schnapier, adding sophomore bill goettman and ronnie moore from a wealth of freshman talent • with the emphasis on speed and scoring, they compiled twelve wins during the 21-game schedule and placed high in the ohio conference with 10 victories and five defeats • perk robins scored 401 points during the season to break the college record, and his three-year total of 850 represented a new high in basketball annals • his election to most voluable player in the ohio conference as well as placement on the first team in the conference and third team in the all-ohio ratings, completed a brilliant career far the louisville, kentucky center.

after dropping the first two games by one-point margins, the lutherans overwhelmed hiram, case tech, and mount union by a total of 50 points.

marshall college of west virginia proved too tall for the mauermen while denison provided the fourth loss in a final second, two-point thriller • wittenberg turned right around and handed muskingum a last minute two-point defeat to page the way for a pair of wins over heidelberg and power-packed ohio wesleyan.

the strain of the busy conference schedule was soon to show, however, as kent state outran the lutherans by 12 points • avenging an earlier loss, the cagers beat ohio state's junior bucks, and tied the scoring record as they ran up 96 points against a hapless otterbein five.

akron and league-leading capital took a pair of very close but decisive games from the lutherans, but they came back with wins over heidelberg, kenyon, and marietta • ohio wesleyan's bishops managed to come from behind in the final two minutes to take perhaps the best game of the season from the tired squad by a scant five points • a loss to oberlin and a win in the season's final against denison completed the season.

hugh "perk" robins become the first player in wittenberg basketball history to be voted the most voluable player by his teammates for the third consecutive season • the senior center rewrote all the college scoring records and was given top honors in the ohio conference.

wittenberg's first postwor boseboll title come to the campus last spring os the diomondmen of cooch mourer posted o 9-1 ohio conference record • o combination of superlotive hurling by an overworked pitching staff, tight defensive teamwork, ond timely clutch hitting by the entire teom proved to be the key to the title.

dove morks pitched five of the nine wins for the lutherons, ond first boseman perk robins, third boseman fred flory, and centerfielder don hertler sporked the attock at the plate, with robins posting o better than .400 averoge for the seoson.

capitol ond otterbein provided four of the wins, with heidelberg splitting the home-ond-home series for the lutherans only conference loss • kenyon gave the lutherans the greatest opportunity to score os the mourmen pounded the lords for on even dozen runs • no team wos able to shut out the lutherons, or even come close • three teams held them to five runs, the smallest number to be scored in o win • outside the conference it wos o slightly different motter, however, for the squad found difficulty in scoring ot will.

winning inside the ohio conference wos the important motter to the baseboll squad, and win they did • the 11-7 defeat of morietto wos the oll-importont win, for it assured the luthersons of ot least o tie, and when their closest rival dropped o second conference gome, they were in.

setting the record for number of matches won during one season, the 1951 tennis squad posted ten wins in the 14-match schedule • led by captain keith miller, bill goettman, dick petrocelli, and jim coleman, the netters rolled over seven opponents before suffering an 0-7 defeat at the hands of denison • otterbein and capital were beaten twice, with ohio wesleyan splitting the two matches with the lutherans.

completing the winning cycle of spring sports, the wittenberg track squad posted a 3-2 record for the yeor • | the record books hardly tell the story, however, for the two losses represented a mere 18 points between victory and defeat • led by sprinters neil randell and jim hoch, distance men chuck rhyne, jim moistner, jerry brixner, and bob lynn, and field men jack grant, marv kobelt, and paul grimm the thinclods gave a cammendable effart in evert meet • coach sherwood fries used his small squad with good effect throughaut the season, and with all of the stars returning, the outlook for this year looks good.

praving that class spirit and unity is easily made a reality, the class af '55 presented "freshman fallies," a twa-haur variety shaw in blair little theater april 16 and 17.

featuring musicals, dances, readings, camedy, and a band, the "fallies" enlarged their audience by playing a number af benefit perfarmances at the xenia arphans hame, the aesterlen hame, and wright-pattersan veterans hospital.

jaanne peppard and bill zimman were ca-directars.

with the moss hart-gearge kaufman comedy hit "you can't take it with you" as their initiol production of the yeor, the speech department's dramatics divisian played to capacity oudiences in blair little theater december 18, 19, ond 20.

sue dudley, who took the leading role, was reviewed in the TORCH as bringing "a naturalness and gaiety ta the stage which charmed the audience."

supporting players included bernie crocker, ruth heins, tam be miller, dick frazier, herk heath, and caroline otter.

something new at wittenberg industry rolled down its sleeves, put on a freshman "dink" and came to college this fall · result . . . a unique and highly successful management development program that is helping supervisory personnel to become more effective in their positions as members of the industrial team · and . . . it is providing wittenberg with a new and much needed source of income.

first, that to be successful the supervisor must have a solid foundation in five basic areas of knowledge: personal development, human relations, economics, company operations and technical operations · this program endeavors to help him gain this foundation in the first four areas, with the fifth being handled at his plant where specific application is possible.

EDUCATION PAYS AT EVERY LEVEL

All progress is measured by education, whether it be formal or attained through the school of experience.

Close cooperation between industry and colleges can put education to work at the source of production. Today's industrial education can develop the "know-how" of tomorrow, thus enriching American life through better techniques and better products at prices the masses can afford to pay.

Since 1881, when this Company put its first little 58-egg incubator on the market, we have been constantly educating the poultry producer to the advantages of more efficient, more productive equipment.

Today, this Company manufactures an automatically controlled incubator with a total capacity exceeding 65,000 eggs—almost four and one-half tons. During this 71 year period, the American poultry industry—thanks to increasing know-how through accumulated knowledge—has developed from a no-industry status to a $4,000,000,000 annual business for poultrymen. That is why we endorse education at every level.

Contract Manufacturers to American Industry

AIRCRAFT GUN TURRET

Since 1914, The Steel Products Engineering Company has been regarded as an outstanding source for contract manufacturing by the nation's leading manufacturers of precision devices.

In addition to the designing and building of special machinery, tools, dies and fixtures, Steel Products has assumed an important role in the development and production of a broad diversification of automotive, aircraft and ordnance parts and assemblies required by our country's defense efforts.

Today, as in World War I and II, we are continuing our tradition of supplying the technical research, engineering and production facilities to produce the highly specialized equipment so vital to strengthening and safeguarding the defense and security of America.

FIRE CONTROL UNITS

BREHM TRIMMING DIES

Acclaimed throughout the metalworking industry, the famous Brehm "Shimmy" Die provides substantial savings in the production of parts for automobiles, refrigerators, cigaret lighters and hundreds of other fabricated items. Operating on a camming principle, the die trims formed shells four ways in a single press stroke to eliminate extra operations — the result, lower manufacturing costs.

A New Frontier IS OPEN!!!

As the pioneers of '49 blazed trails across the Nation's many acres, so Wittenberg is blazing a trail in the minds of Men of Industry. This trail can lead to only one result - - - better supervisory methods and advanced management techniques. Crowell-Collier is wholeheartedly in agreement with the movement and is sending 87 men to Wittenberg's Industrial Management classes during first year.

comparison

during his enrollment in the management development program the supervisor has an opportunity to discuss his problems with men who have like problems · here is the place of exchange of ideas, attitudes and information.

they certainly are · teaching methods and material designed ta capture and hold the interest of the participants are used · conference pracedure is utilized throughaut, supplemented by role playing, case studies, videagraph and motion pictures.
